The image is a screenshot of a web browser displaying the DigitalOcean website. The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://www.digitalocean.com>. The website has a blue header with the DigitalOcean logo, a green "WE'RE HIRING!" button, and navigation links for PRICING, FEATURES, COMMUNITY, HELP, LOG IN, and a SIGN UP button. The main content area has a blue background with the text "Simple cloud hosting, built for developers." and "Deploy an SSD cloud server in 55 seconds. Learn More.". Below this is a registration form with fields for "Email Address" and "Password", and a "CREATE ACCOUNT" button. At the bottom, there is a dark blue banner with a gear icon and the text "Announcing The Release Of Our Ubuntu 14.04 LTS Server". Below the banner, the text "Over 100,000 developers deploy to our cloud." is displayed. At the very bottom, there are three circular icons: an orange one with a laptop and hearts, a blue one with a rocket, and a green one with gears.

- The OS

Finally Create the Droplet

You will receive a email like this:
There you have your IP and root password for ssh

The screenshot shows a Gmail interface in a Google Chrome browser. The browser's address bar displays the URL: <https://mail.google.com/mail/u/0/#search/Digital+ocean/1451a93d880363d6>. The Gmail header shows the search bar with "Digital ocean" entered and a notification for "5 de aproximadamente 39" emails. The email list shows one email from "support@support.digitalocean.com" with the subject "Your new Droplet is created! (chinelo) - DigitalOcean". The email content states: "Your new droplet has been created! You can access it using the following credentials: IP Address: 162.243.63.107 Username: root Password: elicgxgsuqcn". It also provides a link to the SSH keys page: https://cloud.digitalocean.com/ssh_keys. The right sidebar shows a "DigitalOcean" link and a "Seguir" button. The bottom of the page shows storage usage: "4.91 GB (32%) de 15 GB usados" and a copyright notice for 2014 Google.
